ROUGH SKIN

Naturally so or made so by exposure to rough weather and winds can be made smooth by the right remedy. Red skin—the rough, raw kind—is annoying, if you admire a clean, healthy complexion. Read on and learn what will make it white and velvety. Sallow skin—the greasy sort, that gives the complexion that unclean appearance, is due to improperly nourished cells. Feed them and obtain a beautiful skin. Pimples need a healing, soothing medicament to make it healthy and smooth.

Crema Almonds and Roses

Epsom's is a healing, soothing, emollient cream, free from injurious drugs, that protects the surfaces, feeds the skin, heals its diseases and makes the flesh firm and healthy. Every ladies' dressing table should have it. 25c a bottle.
